

TLC Quilters News June 2011

President's Message

It's hard to believe we are half way through the year.

So far, TLC is doing well thanks to those of you who work so hard. Many thanks to Liz Leahy who has stepped up and is doing a great job on door prizes and gift baskets. Thank you so much Liz.

Thanks to Irene Parker, Maxine Smith, and Donna Long for doing such a great job of Hospitality. Incidentally, we need fat quarters for the birthday basket.

Roberta Taylor has really done a wonderful job with paper piecing "Block of the Month". We appreciate her enthusiasm and creativity.

As usual, Pat Maxcy and her team have done a superb job of Philanthropy. To all of you, too numerous to mention here, thanks for your hard work, smiling faces, and positive contributions. We all appreciate your good work and endless hours.

Sue Peterson,

President

VINTAGE OPPORTUNITY QUILT

At the May TLC meeting, the vintage opportunity quilt was won by Anna Claire Pavitch. You may remember Anna Claire as the "Cake Lady" who provided delicious homemade cakes for our meeting several years ago. She was absolutely delighted to win the quilt which was donated to the guild by the family of Britta Welles. Britta was one of the first members of our guild and served as president. Anna Claire is moving to North Las Vegas this month. She says to call her if you are in the area.

Many thanks to all the members who sold tickets and volunteered their time at shows.

June Philanthropy Report.

Ladies, it has been such fun making the blocks for our Soldier quilts. I am glad you are enjoying them. There will be no blocks distributed at the June, July or August Guild meeting. We will be putting the Soldier blocks that you put together at our Thursday, June 30 workshop at Gingers. It will be fun showing the quilt tops of the blocks at the July Guild meeting. I hope a lot of you come to the workshop at Gingers. The time will be from 10:30 to 3:00. You can come any time and stay for the whole workshop if you so desire. Remember for every six hours at the Philanthropy workshops you get credit for one quilt. The workshop is at the end of the month because of the Quilt run June 16-24.

Let's make the popular "Dump" salad for lunch at Gingers. I will provide bowls, forks, napkins, lettuce for the salad and dressings. You bring the ingredients, i.e. tomatoes, cheese, bacon, hard boiled eggs, veggies etc.

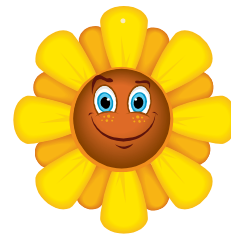

See you at June Guild meeting

June's Paper Piecing BOM

There were 2 lucky winners of May's boat blocks: Shirley Wiltshire and Brenda Wakeland. Congrats and thanks for participating to all who turned in blocks.

In an additional attachment to the e-mailed newsletter are the 2 sun patterns for June. Remember 4 of these blocks go together nicely for a medallion center block too! Make as many of each or both as you like. Your name goes in the drawing basket for each one you make.

June's hint: sew beyond the 1/4" seam allowance the last time through that point to give stability around edges of block.

Looking forward to seeing your bright ideas in June!!
